Part 1: Practical

A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion. - Proverbs 18:2

1. Create room for every voice.

- Share ownership early.
- Protect against dominant voices.

2. Discover & shape the ideas.

- Summarize before you shift.
- Look for the "note behind the note."

3. Have the courage to wait.

- Embrace silence.
- Lean into the tension.

Part 2: Personal

1. A strong leader gains strength from remaining weak.

- Collaboration requires selflessness.
- A flexible, teachable leader achieves more.

When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with the humble is wisdom. - Proverbs 11:2

2. A mature leader steers others towards interdependence.

- Interdependence fosters healthy teams.
